

The bill, entitled an act to incorporate the Hagerstown Beneficial Society, was read a third time.

Mr. Smith moved to amend the bill, by adding at the end of it, the following proviso: "Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to extend to the society any banking privileges;" which amendment was read and assented to.

The bill thus amended, was then passed and returned to the House of Delegates.

On motion of Mr. Heath, the engrossed bill, entitled a supplement to an act, entitled an act for amending and reducing into system the laws and regulations concerning last wills and testaments, the duties of executors, administrators and guardians, and the rights of orphans, and other representatives of deceased persons, was read a third time, by special order, passed and sent to the House of Delegates.

On motion of Mr. Dennis, the Senate resumed the consideration of the bill, entitled an act to incorporate a bank, to be called by the name of the Bank of Salisbury.

Mr. Smith moved to amend the bill, by striking out the words "one hundred," in the 4th and 5th lines of the 1st section, for the purpose of inserting in lieu thereof, the word "fifty."

Mr. Kennedy asked for a division of the question; and the question was put on striking out, and determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Kennedy then moved to insert the words "seventy-five" and the question was put, and determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Dennis moved that the Senate reconsider their last vote on inserting the words "seventy-five," and the question was put, and determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Dennis then moved to insert the word "fifty," and the question was put, and determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Dennis moved to amend the bill by striking out the word "four," in the last line of the 1st section, for the purpose of inserting the word "two;" which amendment was read and assented to.

Mr. Dennis moved farther to amend the bill by striking out the the word "eighteen," in the 8th line of the 3d section, and inserting, in lieu thereof, the words "twenty-eight;" which amendment was read and assented to.

Mr. Smith moved to amend the bill by striking out the words "twenty-five," in the 2d line of the 22d section, and inserting in lieu thereof, the words "thirty-five;" which amendment was read and assented to.